

the judge shall issue an order to the sheriff of Baltimore city, requiring him to summon twenty jurors to attend the court, when proceedings shall be had in such cases as is usual in like cases in equity.

1874, ch. 312. 1888, ch. 194.

175. The judge of the circuit court is not required to file opinions for or in respect of any final decree or decretal order, whenever such decree or order shall have passed upon argument, oral or in writing, on the part of any of the parties to a cause. This section shall apply also to the judge of the circuit court number two of Baltimore city.

CIRCUIT COURT NUMBER TWO OF BALTIMORE CITY.

1888, ch 194.

176. Another court is established in and for the city of Baltimore, to be styled the circuit court number two of Baltimore city. The powers and jurisdiction of said court shall be concurrent with those now held and exercised by the circuit court of Baltimore city, and both of said courts shall have the same terms and return days; subject, however, to such rules and regulations for a proper distribution and apportionment of business between them as the supreme bench of Baltimore city shall from time to time prescribe.

Ibid.

177. There shall be elected another judge of the supreme bench of Baltimore city, by the legal and qualified voters of said city, at the election to be held in said city on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight; the said judge, when elected, to be subject to all the provisions of the constitution relating to the supreme bench in Baltimore city and the several judges thereof.

Ibid.

178. There shall be elected at the same election by the legal and qualified voters of Baltimore city, a clerk for said circuit court number two of Baltimore city, who shall be subject to all the provisions of the constitution relating to the clerk of the circuit court of Baltimore city.
