

than fine and imprisonment can be imposed, shall endorse on said commitments the names and places of residence of the witnesses who shall have appeared before them on behalf of the prosecution, and shall recognize said witnesses to appear before said court on the next Saturday thereafter.

P L. L., (1860,) art 4, sec. 180.

185. The warden of the Baltimore city jail shall, on receiving said commitment, enter the names and places of residence of said witnesses on his docket, and shall, on demand, give a copy thereof to the accused, together with a copy of the commitment.

Ibid sec 181.

186. The said warden shall bring before the criminal court every person who may be committed to jail for want of bail, for any of the offences mentioned in section 184, on the Saturday next succeeding his commitment; and if the said person shall think proper to waive his right to a trial by jury, and have his cause heard and determined in a summary way, the said court shall hear and determine the same, and the same shall be proceeded with in the same manner and to the same legal effect as if submitted on presentment or indictment by the grand jury.

Ibid. sec. 182.

187. The said warden shall file with the clerk of said court the original commitment, or a copy thereof, on the day preceding the trial.

Ibid. sec. 183.

188. The clerk of said court shall tax only half the legal charges in such cases established by law in cases of indictment found by a grand jury; and all cases of presentment for violation of the provisions of the public general laws relating to licenses may be tried upon presentment, and be chargeable with only half the legal costs chargeable in such cases, when tried upon indictment.

Ibid. sec. 184.

189. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to make return of each capias upon presentment or indictment from said court within five
