

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 29, sec. 61

195. The judge of said court shall hold a court every Saturday during the year, on which day no petit jury shall be in attendance, unless such jury has been empaneled, and the case before it is not concluded.

Ibid. sec. 64.

196. In all cases of misdemeanor which may be prosecuted in said court at the instance of any person, if the party so prosecuted shall be acquitted, all the legal costs and expenses attending the prosecution shall be paid by the person at whose instance such prosecution was commenced, unless the court shall certify that there was probable cause for the prosecution.

Ibid. sec. 65.

197. The same process may be issued for the recovery of the costs and expenses of such prosecution against the person who may become liable therefor under the last preceding section, as could be issued against the party prosecuted, if he had been convicted.

1886, ch. 46.

198. The mayor and city council shall not be liable in any criminal cases tried in the criminal court of Baltimore for the appearance fees allowed by law to the attorney of the traverser.

P. G. L., (1860,) art 29, sec. 66.

199. Whenever the grand jury shall find any presentment against any person for misdemeanor they shall endorse on the presentment the name of the person at whose instance such presentment is made, who shall be deemed and taken to be the person at whose instance such prosecution was commenced.

Ibid. sec. 67.

200. If any security in any recognizance shall request to deliver up the principal, said court, or the judge thereof in the recess, may accept such surrender, and may require and take other recognizance, or commit the principal to jail until he gives such security as the law requires.
