

from each of said parties, and all of them shall be legal voters, residing in the precinct for which they are appointed, and shall be men of approved integrity and capacity, and none of them shall hold office or employment under the government of the United States or of the State of Maryland, or of the city of Baltimore, and they must not be candidates for office at the next ensuing election. Immediately upon the appointment of said officers of registration, the said board of supervisors of election shall publish their names daily, for one week, in four of the newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, to the end that ample public opportunity may be given to investigate and determine any complaints that may be preferred to said board in writing against their fitness and qualifications to act as such officers of registration; should any such complaints be so preferred, it shall be the duty of said board to examine promptly into the same and to remove any of such officers of registration whom, upon inquiry, they shall find to be unfit or incapable, and to appoint others in their stead, possessing the qualifications hereinbefore prescribed. The names of all persons substituted in the place of those who shall be removed or excused for any cause from serving shall be immediately published not less than three times in each of four daily newspapers in the city of Baltimore; and the whole of said officers of registration shall be finally selected, appointed and qualified not later than the first Monday in May in each year, so that they may be ready to enter upon the performance of their duties as officers of registration on the second Monday of May in each year, as provided by article 33 of the code of public general laws, title "Elections," sub-title "Registration of Voters. Said board shall have power to remove any of said officers of registration for misconduct, inefficiency or neglect of duty; and vacancies occurring amongst said officers of registration by death, removal from the city of Baltimore, disqualification from any cause, or removal by the board of supervisors of election, shall be promptly filled, and the names of their successors duly published by said board. It shall also be the duty of said board of supervisors of elections, not less than two months before every election to be hereafter held in the city of Baltimore, to select three discreet and qualified persons, no one of whom shall hold office or employment under the government of
