

judges, to make the said advertisements, or of the said board to appoint properly qualified judges, whether in the stead of any so-disqualified or otherwise, shall be held and taken to be a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable by fine in the discretion of the court, on conviction thereof in a court of competent jurisdiction.

ELECTIONS---PRIMARY.

1886, ch. 502.

274. Any primary elections hereafter to be held by any voluntary political association or party in the city of Baltimore for delegates to any managing convention, otherwise called city convention, or to any nominating convention, or for the nomination of candidates for State or municipal office, shall be held under the terms and subject to the provisions of this sub-title of this article, if so determined as hereinafter provided, by such voluntary political association or party.

Ibid.

275. Any such political association or party desiring to hold any such primary election under the terms and subject to the provisions of this sub-title of this article, shall determine the same by a majority resolution of its managing convention, which resolution shall contain the call for the election, its purpose, the day when and the hours of the day between which it is to be held, the qualifications of the persons who may vote thereat, and that said election is to be held under and subject to the provisions of this sub-title of this article; upon the publication of such resolution, under the hand of the president of such managing convention, once, at least thirty days before the holding of such election, in one or more newspapers published in said city, the election called in such resolution shall be held under and subject to the provisions of this sub-title of this article, otherwise it shall not be.

Ibid.

276. All persons desirous of being voted for at such election as delegates to any managing convention, or as candidates for any State or municipal office, shall send in their names, the names of the offices for which they are candidates, and the amount of money that may be assessed to them to defray the