

legitimate expenses of the election, by order of the managing convention under whose authority such election is called, to the executive committee of such managing convention, which committee shall publish in one or more newspapers published in said city, a list of the names of the said candidates complying with the requirements of this section, and opposite their names, the names of the offices for which they are candidates, at least three days before such election; any person who fails to comply with the requirements of this section, or who fails to comply therewith in time to enable the executive committee to make the publication herein required, shall not be voted for at said election, and if any votes are cast for him they shall not be counted.

1886, ch. 502.

277. All primary elections held under the provisions of this sub-title of this article shall be by wards, and at every such election the polls shall be open for the reception of votes from eight o'clock A. M. to eight o'clock P. M., and no longer.

Ibid.

278. The managing convention of any such political association or party, shall appoint a board of three persons to revise the selections of judges and clerks made by the ward delegations, as hereinafter provided for; the time of appointment, the term of service, and the filling of vacancies in said board to be determined by such convention; and shall prescribe by resolution the qualifications of such judges and clerks; the delegation to such managing convention from each ward, shall select for each election to be held under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, three persons to act as judges, one of whom shall be designated as return judge, and two persons to act as clerks, having the qualifications prescribed as aforesaid, and shall fix the polling-place in said ward, which shall be as near the center of the ward as possible, and not in any house where intoxicating liquors are sold; each of said ward delegations shall return to said board of revision a list of the judges and clerks, and the polling-place selected by them, at least ten days before the election for which such selections are made; the list to remain in the rooms of the executive committee of such managing convention until