FINES AND FORFEITURES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 4, sec 232.

305. One-half of all fines adjudged by and accruing in the criminal court of Baltimore (except those mentioned in the four succeeding sections), when secured by the sheriff of Baltimore city, shall be paid to the mayor and city council of Baltimore, and out of said fines the judge of said court may order and direct to be paid to the State's attorney for said city, such additional fees, in cases of extraordinary duration and trouble, as he may deem just and reasonable; but this section shall not have any effect upon the rights of informers.

1884, ch. 119.

306. The sheriff of Baltimore city shall, on or before the first day of December in each year, divide equally all fines imposed by the criminal court of Baltimore on persons convicted of keeping houses of ill-fame, among such incorporated dispensaries of said city as shall comply with the provisions of the succeeding section.
