

of the water-works for the fiscal year, shall be ascertained or estimated for, as nearly as can be, by the finance committee of said city council in making up the annual levy; and immediately thereafter the clerk shall advertise for one week in the daily papers of the city, for bids to furnish said supplies and tools, or to make such repairs; said bids to be opened by the clerk in the presence of the city council, and the award shall be made of such contracts to the lowest responsible bidder therefor; provided, that such lowest bid shall be considered reasonable by said city council.

89. No draft shall be drawn upon the treasurer of said city unless there shall be in the treasury at the time of drawing the same a sufficient sum of money to pay such draft.

Ibid.

90. Every officer of said city who shall in the course of his official business receive monies belonging to said city, shall pay the same over to the treasurer, and to no other person; and no officer of said city, except the treasurer, shall pay any drafts or obligations of said city.

Ibid.

91. No street shall be graded, nor shall any grade be established for any street, nor shall any grade be changed or altered upon any street, or part of a street in said city, nor shall any repairs be made upon any street, or part of a street therein affecting the existing grade thereof, except under the supervision of the city engineer, and upon plans made by him, which plans, however, the city council may change or modify, if objected to by any party in interest.

Ibid.

92. The mayor and each member of the city council shall, during the whole term for which they are elected, continue to be possessed of all the qualifications rendering them eligible; and if any one of them, during the term for which he was elected, shall fail to retain all the qualifications necessary to render him eligible, he shall forfeit such office, and a new election to fill the vacancy caused thereby shall be immediately ordered by
