

P. L. L., (1860,) art 1, sec. 59.

99. Any person in whose hands or custody any deer flesh or skins shall be found, that shall not appear to have been killed within said months, shall be prima facie deemed and adjudged the killer or destroyer of such deer, and be liable to the foregoing penalty.

DOGS.

1876, ch 97.

100. Allegany, Cecil, Somerset, Calvert, Washington, Prince George's, St. Mary's, Caroline, Carroll, Queen Anne's, Dorchester, Wicomico, Montgomery, Worcester and Kent counties, and Baltimore city, and all cities, towns or boroughs in which dogs are taxed by municipal ordinance are exempted from the operation of sections 157-162 of article 81 of the code of public general laws, title "Revenue and Taxes."

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

1878, ch. 203.

101. Allegany county is divided into fifteen election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, and elections for public officers shall be held in each of said districts at the places which have been or may be designated by the county commissioners.

Ibid.

102. If it shall at any time be deemed necessary to the convenience of voters in said county, or any part thereof, to increase the number of election districts, or to alter or change the lines between districts, or to change the place for holding the election polls in any district in said county, then the county commissioners of said county shall have power so to do.

1883, ch. 320.

103. If it shall at any time be deemed necessary to the convenience of voters in said county, or any part thereof, to subdivide any of the election districts of said county into two or more election precincts, the county commissioners of said county shall have power so to do, and in such event to provide all
