

of any two of these shall be final; should the decision of the inspector be sustained, the said owner or renter shall pay the expense of such review; but should it be reversed, the inspector shall restore the certificate, and the expense of the review shall be paid by the State; such reviewers shall receive five dollars for each day or part of a day they are engaged in making such review.

1872, ch. 153.

517. Any person erecting or using a steam boiler without having the same inspected by the inspector of the district in which the said boiler is located, shall pay a fine of one hundred dollars, and fifty dollars for each day any such boiler is used without being inspected; and any person who shall alter or change a steam gauge or weight on a safety-valve for the purpose of carrying a greater pressure of steam on a boiler than that allowed by the certificate of inspection, shall be liable to a fine of five hundred dollars; and any owner or renter of a steam boiler who shall neglect or refuse to place his certificate of inspection on the premises, as prescribed in section 514 hereof, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each day's refusal or neglect.

Ibid.

518. The inspector shall have power to examine the engineers and assistants in charge of boilers, and if any engineer or assistant is found incompetent or addicted to intemperance, the inspector shall notify the owner or renter, and withdraw the certificate of inspection until such engineer or assistant is displaced.

Ibid.

519. Before issuing any certificate of inspection, the inspectors shall demand and receive from the owner or renter of the boiler, as a compensation for the inspection, and the examinations to be made during the year, as hereinbefore provided, the following sums: For every boiler of ten horse power or less, five dollars; when the boiler is above ten horse power, five dollars for the first ten, and twenty-five cents additional for each horse power in excess of that number.
