

necessary machinery for holding elections in said several precincts as if they were complete election districts; and whenever any election district is so divided into two or more election precincts, it shall be the duty of the officer of registration for such district to make and keep up separate lists of qualified voters for each of said several precincts.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 1, sec. 63.

104. The judges and clerks of election in said county shall each receive two dollars a day for holding elections and making returns thereof.

ELECTIONS---PRIMARY

1888, ch. 181.

105. Every political primary election held by any political party, organization or association, in Allegany county, for the purpose of choosing candidates for office, or the election of delegates to county conventions, shall be presided over and conducted by judges of election selected in the manner prescribed by the rules or regulations of the political party, organization or association holding such primary, and such primary election shall be held at such hours between nine o'clock in the forenoon and nine o'clock in the afternoon as may be prescribed by the party, organization or association holding the same; but such poll shall be held open not less than one hour, and the voting thereat shall be by ballot, and such poll shall be public to the watchers hereinafter provided, from its commencement to the close of the canvass.

Ibid.

106. At any time before or during such primary election held for the purpose herein provided, the candidates, or a majority thereof, named on any ticket to be voted for at such primary election shall have the right to name one elector as watcher at the poll of each election district for such election.

Ibid.

107. If at any political primary election held by any party, organization or association in said county, any individual shall falsely personate and vote under the name of any other person,