

the warden, which shall be the subject of contest before a justice of the peace for said city, either party against whom judgment shall be given, whatever may be the amount in dispute, may appeal to the Baltimore city court.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 583.

550. The said warden, before he enters upon the duties of his office shall give bond to the State with at least two securities, to be approved by the visitors, in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as warden, and for the safe keeping of all such persons as shall be committed by legal authority to the jail of Baltimore city, which bond shall be filed and recorded in the criminal court of Baltimore.

Ibid. sec. 584.

551. He shall also take and subscribe an oath that he will duly and faithfully execute the duties and trusts, and exercise the powers committed to and vested in him as warden of the jail of Baltimore city.

Ibid. sec. 585.

552. The visitors shall prescribe the number and duties of the assistants who may be necessary to be employed by said warden, but the warden shall have the appointment and removal of such assistants, subject to the approval of the visitors.

Ibid. sec. 586.

553. All commitments of prisoners to the jail of Baltimore city shall be directed to the warden of said jail, whose duty it shall be to receive the prisoners from the officers having them in charge.

Ibid. sec. 587.

554. He shall conduct all prisoners in his custody to and from the courts, when the said courts shall direct him to do so.

Ibid. sec. 588.

555. He shall account with the visitors for all sums of money which he may collect as jail fees for prisoners confined in the jail, or from any other source connected with the institution.
