

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 589.

556. The visitors shall allow such compensation to the warden and his assistants as they may think reasonable and proper.

Ibid. sec. 590.

557. They may, at their will and pleasure, remove said warden from office and appoint another in his stead.

Ibid. sec. 591.

558. They shall annually make out and lay before the mayor and city council a full statement of all the public money received by them from the register of the said city or from any other source, and the manner in which it has been expended, with an estimate of what will be necessary for the following year, which estimate shall be levied on the property in said city and paid to the visitors.

Ibid. sec. 592.

559. No warden, or any person employed by him, shall keep a tavern for the sale of spirituous liquors within the said jail, or within one-eighth of a mile of the limits thereof; and if the warden, or any person employed by him, shall, either by themselves or others, dispose of, sell or retail, or be concerned with others in the disposal, sale or retailing of any spirituous liquors of any kind to any person coming to said jail on a visit, or to any prisoner confined therein, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by indictment and applied to the use of the city.

Ibid. sec. 593.

560. No cider, beer, wine, brandy, rum, whiskey or other spirituous liquor shall be brought within the jail lot by any warden or other person having charge thereof, or by any prisoner, visitor or any other person, except by order of the attending physician thereof, and except in such small quantities as may be absolutely wanted to be consumed by the warden and his family and assistants.

Ibid. sec. 595.

561. If any warden shall introduce, or suffer to be introduced, within the jail lot, knowing it to be done contrary to law, any
