

title of this article be construed to prevent or conclude, or interfere in any manner with any other proceeding or action (not an action of distress), undertaken or to be undertaken or prosecuted by said lessor to recover any rent due by said tenant for the premises so had or sought to be had again and repossessed as aforesaid.

LICENSES.

BILLIARDS.

1870, ch. 250. P. G. L., (1888,) art. 56, sec. 8.

641. A license may be granted to any person who may apply for permission to keep a billiard table, for which license there shall be paid the sum of fifty dollars, and for every additional billiard table kept by the same person, he shall pay a license of twenty-five dollars; provided, that all said additional tables shall be kept in the same apartment; and provided, that this section shall not apply to any billiard table kept for private use.

1865, ch. 56. Ibid. sec. 9.

642. Any person keeping or exhibiting for use a billiard table, without first obtaining a license therefor, shall for each and every table so kept or exhibited, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars, one-half to the informer and the other half to the State.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 56, sec. 8. Ibid. sec. 10.

643. Nothing contained in the two preceding sections shall impair the right of the mayor and city council of Baltimore to impose a further tax on billiard tables.

DEALERS IN HAY, STRAW OR HUSKS.

1888, ch. 493.

644. Any person who shall offer to act as a dealer, broker or middleman in hay, straw or husks, in the city of Baltimore, shall be required to take out a hay broker's license of one hundred dollars per annum before he shall so act. Any person who shall attempt to act as such dealer, broker or middleman in hay, straw or husks, or who shall sell or engage to sell any of the aforementioned commodities, without first having obtained the license
