

mentioned in this section, shall upon conviction be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to a fine of two hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the city jail for not less than sixty days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

1888, ch. 493.

645. When any person shall secure a license to act as such dealer, broker or middleman, such license shall only permit the person named in such license to act in such capacity, and shall not apply to or enable any agent or partner of said person so to act.

Ibid.

646. The provisions of the two preceding sections shall not apply to regular licensed dealers in hay, straw or husks who have a fixed place of business in the city of Baltimore.

HORSE DEALERS.

1884, ch. 448.

647. It shall not be lawful for any person, copartnership, firm, corporation, joint stock company, brokers, commission merchants, agents, factors or other association of persons, to engage in or carry on the business, trade, occupation or calling of bartering, buying, selling, exchanging or dealing in horses, mares, geldings, jackasses, jennies or mules, either as an individual copartnership, firm, corporation, joint stock company, commission merchant, agent, factor, broker, or other association for said purpose, without first obtaining from the clerk of the court of common pleas of Baltimore city a license for carrying on said business, for which every such person, if he desires to carry on said business individually, or if a firm or association, composed of not more than two persons, or corporation, shall pay the sum of fifty dollars; provided, that all the names and places of business of said persons so applying shall be inserted in said license; and if more than two individuals constitute and compose any such firm, copartnership, joint stock company or association, then an additional sum of twenty-five dollars shall be paid for each and every other individual than the said two constituting such firm, copartnership, joint stock company or association of individuals; and