

city of Baltimore, upon the payment of one hundred dollars for the use of the State.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 948.

666. Not more than two persons shall be included in any one license, and the names of both shall be expressed therein, and such license shall be annually renewed.

1862, ch. 173.

667. No person shall retail or huckster wood on any wharf in the city of Baltimore under a common trader's license, or without having first obtained a license for said purpose, as provided in the two preceding sections; and any person so offending shall be fined one hundred dollars, one-half for the use of the State and the other half for the use of the person who shall prosecute for the same.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 950.

668. Nothing contained in the three preceding sections shall prevent masters and owners of vessels from selling or retailing wood without a license.

DUTY OF SHERIFF.

1866, ch. 151. 1888, ch. 372.

669. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of Baltimore city annually, in the month of April, to make or cause to be made an alphabetical list of the names of all persons or bodies corporate or politic in each ward of the city of Baltimore who shall be exercising, pursuing any business, or be doing any act or thing, or shall be in the use or occupation of any house or place for any purpose for which a license is made necessary by this sub-title of this article, and to return such list to the grand jury of said city at as early a period as practicable after the first day of May then next ensuing; and the said sheriff shall, within the first week of the month of April, cause a notice to be inserted in the daily papers of the city, cautioning all persons and bodies corporate or politic whom it may concern, to obtain a license, or renew the same, on or before the first day of May then next ensuing; and said sheriff shall be entitled to receive fifty cents for every license obtained by any person whose name shall be contained in the list so