MARINERS AND CHARITABLE MARINE SOCIETY OF BALTIMORE.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 680.

670. Whenever a mariner residing in or sailing to or from the port of Baltimore shall depart this life intestate, and leaving no relations within the fifth degree, to be reckoned by counting down from the common ancestor to the more remote, the whole surplus estate of such mariner, after paying debts, funeral expenses and cost of administration, shall devolve on and become the property of the charitable marine society of Baltimore.

MARKETS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 681.

671. The mayor and city council have power to erect and regulate markets.

Ibid. sec. 682.

672. If any person shall buy, or cause to be bought, any kind of vegetables, dead meat, poultry, butter, cheese, tallow, eggs or fish, in any of the markets of said city, or within ten miles thereof, with an intent to sell the same again in such markets or city, or within two miles thereof, he shall for the first offence forfeit the article, or the value thereof, for the second offence, he shall forfeit the article and be fined four dollars, and for every other offence forfeit fifteen dollars, to be recovered in a summary way before a justice of the peace; provided, that the purchasing of pork, beef and fish, by the barrel or other package, butter in firkins, or other packages not less than fifty pounds, bacon or cheese by the quantity, by any merchant or shop keeper, and selling the same again in his store or shop, shall not be deemed or taken as an offence against this section.

Ibid. sec. 683.

673. Whenever any person shall be found exposing for sale any of the articles enumerated in the preceding section, otherwise
