

or net, in any of the creeks or streams of water, or any of their tributaries, west of Savage mountain, in Allegany county, for the purpose of catching, taking or destroying fish in any of the said creeks, streams of water, and their tributaries in said county, west of Savage mountain, for every such offence, upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of said county, shall be fined in a sum not less than ten dollars, nor more than twenty dollars, one-half of said fine to be given to the informer and the other half to be applied to the public school fund of Allegany county. In the event of the failure or refusal of any person so convicted to pay such fine, the justice of the peace imposing the same shall commit him to the jail of Allegany county for not less than thirty nor more than sixty days.

FLINTSTONE.

1882, ch. 398.

123. It shall not be lawful for the clerk of the circuit court for Allegany county to grant a license to any person to sell any kind of intoxicating liquors within the limits of Flintstone district, number three, of Allegany county; and any person selling any spirituous or fermented liquors, whether of home or foreign manufacture, within the above described limits shall, on conviction, be subject to the fines and penalties now provided by the code of public general laws for selling liquors without license.

Ibid.

124. Nothing in the preceding section shall be construed as prohibiting any regular practising physician from prescribing, or any regularly licensed druggist from selling on prescription, such liquors as may be used for medicine, but no druggist shall sell or give away any liquors except on prescription from a regular practising physician.

FLOUR.

1878, ch. 398.

125. The county commissioners, on or before the second Monday of May in each year, shall appoint an inspector of flour for said county, who shall live in the city of Cumberland, and who shall inspect all flour which he may be called
