

such clerk filed in his office, and shall be confirmed by said court at its next session if no sufficient cause to the contrary be shown, and when confirmed shall be recorded by the said clerk at the expense of the mayor and city council.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 647.

687. If said inquisition be set aside by the court, the said court shall direct another inquisition to be taken in the manner hereinafter directed.

Ibid. sec. 648.

688. Every such inquisition shall describe the property taken or the bounds of the land condemned, and the quantity or duration of the interest in the same valued to the mayor and city council; and such valuation, when paid or tendered to the owner of said property or his legal representatives, shall entitle the mayor and city council to the full, legal and equitable title, interest and estate of the owners of said property, estate and interest in the same thus valued, as fully as it had been held by the owners of the same; and the valuation, if not received when tendered, may at any time thereafter be received without interest by the said owners, or their legal representatives.

Ibid. sec. 649.

689. If the twenty jurors summoned as hereinbefore directed shall not appear at the time and place appointed, the sheriff or his deputy shall forthwith summon other freeholders of the city, qualified as before directed, to make up the said jury to the number of twelve.

Ibid. sec. 650.

690. The jurors summoned and attending shall be allowed one dollar per day for their services; the sheriff shall be allowed the same fees as for summoning jurors to the superior court, and two dollars a day for each day he or his deputy shall attend upon such inquisition; and such expenses shall be paid by the mayor and city council, except in cases of objection to the confirmation of the inquisition, when the costs in said court may be awarded in the discretion of the court.
