

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 791.

701. The said court may, at its discretion, from time to time, appoint any other trustee or trustees in place of those appointed by the decree; and the proceeds of such sales shall be accounted for to, and distributed by said court, in the manner usual in cases of sales under decrees of said court.

Ibid. sec. 792.

702. Any mortgagee of property in the city of Baltimore, his assignee or executor, where a power to sell is contained in the mortgage, may proceed under article 66 of the public general laws, title "Mortgages," but notices of sale under such power shall be published in two daily newspapers in said city for the period required by law.

1864, ch. 124.

703. Where a default of the mortgagors has taken place before the said conveyances have been submitted to the circuit court of Baltimore city, it shall, nevertheless, be the duty of said court, upon the submission of the said conveyances to such court, after the said default, to forthwith decree that the mortgaged premises shall be sold on such terms of sale as to the said court shall seem proper, and to appoint by said decree a trustee or trustees to make such sale, requiring bond and security for the performance of the trust, as is usual in the case of the sale of mortgaged premises; and the said trustee or trustees may sell the same agreeably to the terms of the said decree; but before each sale the mortgagee or mortgagees, or some of the mortgagees, or the executor or administrator of a deceased mortgagee, or the assignee or assignees of the mortgagee, or one of such assignees, or the executor or administrator of a deceased assignee, shall file in the court in which the said proceedings are pending, a statement of the amount of the said mortgage claim remaining due, verifying the same by the oath or affirmation of the party filing the same; and the said affidavit or affirmation may be made before any of the persons mentioned in section 693 of this sub-title of this article, and the same shall be authenticated as provided for in said section 693.

1864, ch. 124.

704. The provisions of sections 694-701, inclusive, of this sub-title of this article shall apply to all the proceedings under the preceding section.
