

or of violating any law of the State beyond the limits of the city, upon the Chesapeake bay, or on any river, creek, inlet, water-course, or other place on land or water within the State of Maryland, it shall be the duty of the said board of police commissioners to cause such person to be followed, and to take the most efficient means for the suppression and prevention of such outrage, when any such shall be attempted, and to cause the arrest of all such offenders; provided, however, that if any crime be actually committed by such person, the offender shall be delivered to the proper jurisdiction for trial and punishment; any person charged with the commission of crime in the city of Baltimore, and against whom criminal process shall have issued, may be arrested upon the same in any part of the State by the police force created under this sub-title of this article, under such rules and regulations as the board of police commissioners may adopt; and the said board shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations in the premises to any person appearing or called before them, and shall also have the power of administering oaths or affirmations and summoning witnesses before them whenever it may be necessary for the more effectual discharge of their duties.

Mitchell v. Lemon, 34 Md. 176. Roddy v. Finnegan, 43 Md. 490.

1886, ch. 186. 1888, ch. 500. 1888, ch. 98, sec. 24. 1886, ch. 303.

726. The said board of police commissioners are authorized and required, immediately on entering on the duties of their office, to appoint, enroll and employ a permanent police force for the city of Baltimore, which they shall arm and equip as they may judge necessary, under such rules and regulations as they may from time to time prescribe; and the said board shall have power to remove any police officer or officers of police, or any detective, for the violation of any rule or regulation which they may make and promulgate to said police force, officers of police or detectives; said force shall consist of one marshal and one deputy marshal of police of the city, and one captain, two lieutenants, two turnkeys and one clerk at each station house, who shall receive a salary of eighteen dollars per week, and such number of sergeants as said board of police in their judgment may deem necessary for each police district in said city, and six
