

pay; the said board shall have power to require of any policeman, officer of police or detective, bond with sureties, when they may consider it demanded by the public interest; all lawful rules and regulations of the board shall be obeyed by the policemen, officers of police and detectives, on pain of dismissal or such lighter punishment as may be prescribed by the said board; and the said board shall have power to suspend from duty, fine or forfeit the pay of any officer or policeman, or suspend any rule or regulation made and adopted by them.

731. No officer of police, policeman or detective shall be allowed to receive any money as a gratuity or extra compensation for any services he may render, without the consent of the said board; and all such moneys as any officer of police, policeman and detective may be so permitted to receive shall be paid over to the said board, and together with the proceeds of all fines, forfeitures, penalties and unclaimed property which may come into the possession of the said board, or be recovered by them under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, or any other law, shall form a fund which the board may apply towards the allowances of officers of police, policemen and detectives and their families, as hereinbefore authorized, and for extra pay to such members of the force as by gallantry and good conduct on extraordinary occasions they may be judged to merit; and any officer of police, policeman or detective who shall directly or indirectly, in violation of this section, receive any moneys as a gratuity or extra compensation, and shall fail to deliver the same to the board for the purposes hereinbefore provided, and shall apply the same to his own use, shall be forthwith dismissed, and be forever after ineligible to any position in the force.

732. The board of police commissioners shall cause to be kept by their secretary, a full report of their proceedings, and also cause all their receipts and disbursements of money to be faithfully entered in books to be provided for that purpose; and said books, journals and all other documents in the possession of said board, shall always be open to inspection by the general assembly,
