School Commrs. of Balto. city v State Board of Education, 26 Md. 505.

1872, ch. 877.

778. The mayor and city council of Baltimore shall have power and authority to make all ordinances for the protection of the school houses and property, and to punish any person who may disturb the sessions of said public schools.

Ibid.

779. They are authorized and empowered to levy and collect upon the assessable property in said city, as other taxes are levied and collected, such amount of taxes as may be necessary to defray all the expenses incurred for educational purposes by them.

Ibid.

780. The treasurer, on the warrant of the comptroller, shall pay to the mayor and city council the proportion of the free school fund to which said city is entitled.

INTESTATES' ESTATES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 829.

781. The orphans' court of said city shall order and direct the funds arising from intestates' estates that may be administered upon in said court and which remain undistributed for want of legal representatives of the intestates to claim the same, to be paid to the board of commissioners of public schools.

Ibid. sec. 830.

782. The court shall not make such order until they shall be satisfied that the intestate left no legal representatives living at the time of his death; and they shall cause the administrator of such intestates to give notice, by advertisement to be inserted for such periods of time and in newspapers published in such places as they may deem necessary, that upon default of the appearance of any legal representative of the intestate, by a certain day to be
