

1868, ch. 181.

795. The amount of benefits assessed on any property for constructing, opening, enlarging or straightening any sewer in any street, lane or alley, or through any private property, constructed, opened, enlarged or straightened by virtue of any ordinance passed by the mayor and city council of Baltimore, shall be a lien on the property and recoverable as city taxes are.

Ibid.

796. Before the mayor and city council of Baltimore shall pass any ordinance under sections 792 and 794, notice shall be given of an application for the passage of such an ordinance in at least two of the daily newspapers of said city, twice a week for sixty days.

Ibid.

797. Before any commissioners appointed by any ordinance of said corporation under the preceding sections hereof shall proceed to the performance of their duty, they shall give daily notice, in at least two newspapers in the city of Baltimore, of the object of the ordinance under which they propose to act, at least thirty days before the time of the first meeting to execute the same

Ibid.

798. Should the commissioners appointed by the mayor and city council of Baltimore assess any part of the expense and damage incurred in the construction, opening, enlarging or straightening any sewer in the city, upon the mayor and city council, the said mayor and city council may levy a tax on the assessable property of the city for the amount of such assessment, or they may raise the necessary amount by a loan, for the payment of which they may create a sinking fund to meet the liabilities incurred; and may also levy on the assessable property of the city of Baltimore from time to time such sums as may be necessary to provide therefor, and for the principal and interest of the liabilities incurred, and may pass all ordinances necessary to carry out the provisions of the same.

1882, ch. 406. 1888, ch. 181.

799. The mayor and city council of Baltimore are authorized to issue the stock of the city of Baltimore for the amount of five
