

entitle the mayor and city council of Baltimore to the use, estate and interest in the same thus valued, as fully as if it had been conveyed by the owner of the same; and the valuation, if not received when tendered, may at any time thereafter be received from the mayor and city council of Baltimore, without interest, by the said owner, or his legal representative.

P. L. L., (1860) art. 4, sec. 937.

925. If the twenty jurors summoned as aforesaid shall not appear at the time and place appointed as aforesaid, the sheriff or his deputy, as the case may be, shall forthwith summon other freeholders of the county, from the bystanders or others qualified as aforesaid, to make up the said jury to the number of twelve.

Ibid sec 938

926. The jurors so summoned and attending shall be allowed the same compensation as is allowed to the jurors in the circuit court for the county, and the sheriff shall be allowed similar fees as are allowed by law for the summoning jurors to attend the circuit court for the county, and also a per diem of two dollars for every day he or his deputy shall be in attendance upon an inquisition; and such expenses shall be paid by the said mayor and city council of Baltimore, except in cases of objections to the confirmation of inquisitions before the circuit court, when the costs in said court may be awarded in the discretion of the court.

927. For the purpose of defraying all the expenses and costs of said lands, waters and water-rights, as shall have been taken for the purposes aforesaid, and of constructing all works necessary to the accomplishment of said purposes, and all expenses incident thereto, the said mayor and city council of Baltimore shall have authority in the name of the city to issue certificates of debt, to be denominated on the face, Baltimore water stock, to an amount not exceeding five million dollars, bearing interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum, and to provide by ordinance for the redemption of the same at a certain time, and under such provisions as the mayor and city council may deem expedient and proper; the said mayor and city council are authorized and
