

1876, ch. 128.

35. Section 32 shall not be construed to interfere with the right of any citizen in the said counties to take the young of the birds mentioned in said section; provided, he make oath in due form of law before some justice of the peace of the county in which he resides, that such young birds taken are intended for his true and bona fide use, and not for the purpose of sale or barter; such oath may be made before or at the time of trial, but shall only be prima facie evidence of innocence.

1884, ch. 75.

36. No person shall shoot, trap, or in any manner catch or kill any partridges between the 11th day of January, said day inclusive, and the 1st day of November, within the limits of Calvert county.

Ibid

37. Any person violating the preceding section shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered before a justice of the peace in and for said county, and to be applied to the public school fund of said county.

BRIDGES.

1876, ch. 379.

38. The county commissioners of Calvert, Anne Arundel and Prince George's counties, are authorized, whenever in their judgment public interest requires it, to provide free travel over the Patuxent river, at or near Hill's bridge.

Ibid.

39. When, in the judgment of said county commissioners, public interest shall require said provision, they may negotiate with the owner of Hill's bridge, and purchase and maintain the same as a public highway free of toll; provided, the price demanded be not a greater sum than it would take to build a new bridge near the site of the present one.

Ibid.

40. In the event of the purchase or building of a bridge, the cost of the structure shall be divided between Calvert, Anne
