

the several election districts in said county, of all dogs owned or kept by any person within their respective districts, particularly noting the number owned or kept by each person, and the names of each owner or keeper thereof.

1870, ch 338.

64. The said collectors, in their respective districts of the county shall proceed to collect the sum so levied and apportioned by the county commissioners as soon as the levy list is placed in their hands, in the same manner as is now provided by law for the collection of State and county taxes in said county, and shall keep and return an accurate account, under oath, of the money arising therefrom, together with the money collected by them, and shall be entitled to receive out of the fund provided by section 66, ten per centum on the amount collected by them, respectively.

Ibid.

65. If any person shall refuse or neglect to pay the tax levied as aforesaid, the collectors of said tax shall kill any dog of such delinquent person, except dogs three months old and under.

Ibid.

66. Out of the tax directed by section 62 to be levied upon the owners of dogs in said county the sum of two dollars shall be paid by the county commissioners as a compensation to any person who may kill or destroy any fox in said county, and the surplus or residue of said tax, if any, shall constitute a general county fund in the hands of the county commissioners for said county, for the repair of the public roads thereof.

Ibid.

67. Before the killer or destroyer of any fox in said county shall be entitled to the compensation of two dollars as aforesaid, he shall present both the brush and scalp of the fox so killed or destroyed, to the county commissioners, and make oath in their presence that the same was killed or destroyed by him in said county.

1876, ch. 97.

68. Calvert, Cecil, Somerset, Washington, Caroline, St. Mary's, Prince George's, Carroll, Queen Anne's, Dorchester, Montgomery,