the party maiming, killing or otherwise injuring said stock, shall be entitled to prove the amount of damage done by such stock in mitigation of the damage for the killing and maiming thereof.

FISH.
1880, ch. 179.

80. None but citizens of Calvert county shall, for any purpose whatsoever, haul a seine or any other instrument, in the waters of Battle creek, Hunting creek or St. Leonard's creek, in said county.

Ibid.

81. No person whatsoever shall haul a seine or any other instrument, in said waters of Battle creek, or use Hunting creek or St. Leonard's creek for the purpose of catching fish for sale, or for any other purpose than for home consumption.

Ibid.

82. Any person violating either of the two preceding sections shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before a justice of the peace shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, one-half to be paid to the informer and the other half to the county commissioners, for county purposes; and either the State or the defendant shall have the same right of appeal from the judgments of said justices as is now allowed in civil cases.

Ibid.

83. The boat and seine found in the possession of any person violating sections 80 and 81, shall be responsible for said fine.

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS.
1868, ch. 454.   1876, ch. 337, sec. 2.

84. The sum of $500,000 is hereby appropriated and set apart for the construction of works of internal improvement in St. Mary's, Charles and Calvert counties, to be distributed to the said counties, respectively, as follows: To Charles county the sum of $175,000; to St. Mary's the sum of $173,000; to Calvert county the sum of $152,000; and as soon as it shall appear to the treasurer of this State by the affidavit of the president of any railroad company now chartered or which may hereafter be chartered in said counties, respectively, that bona fide subscriptions to the capital stock of any such company equal in amount to the sums hereby authorized and directed to be given to such
