

TERRAPINS.

1886, ch. 347. 1888, ch. 82.

136. It shall be lawful for the bona fide citizens of Calvert, St. Mary's and Charles counties, to catch terrapins in the waters of said counties from the first day of October in each and every year, until the first day of May next succeeding.

Ibid.

137. None but bona fide citizens of Calvert, St. Mary's and Charles counties shall catch terrapins in the waters of said counties.

Ibid.

138. Any person violating the two preceding sections shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for Calvert, St. Mary's and Charles counties, shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars, one-half to be paid to the informer and the other to the county commissioners of the county of which the justice of the peace having jurisdiction and trying the case is a resident, for the use and benefit of the public schools of said county.

Ibid.

139. The boat and seine or any other instrument used by or found in the possession of any person violating said sections shall be responsible for the aforesaid fine.

TRESPASS.

1884, ch. 35.

140. Any person who shall enter upon or cross over the premises or private property of any person in Calvert county, after having had a special written notice served upon him by the owner of said property, or by his agent, not to cross over or enter upon said premises or private property, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before some justice of the peace of said county, be fined by said justice not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, and in default of the payment of said fine, together with the cost of prosecutions, shall be committed by said justice of the peace to the county jail for a period of twenty days.
