

ARTICLE VI.

CAROLINE COUNTY.

Almshouse.

1. Trustees of the poor, appointment of.
2. Vacancy in, how filled.
3. Compensation of
4. Oath of.
5. Oath, by whom to be administered.
6. Are a body politic, powers of.
7. May use a seal, and may make rules and regulations for government of.
8. Persons appointed trustees refusing to serve, penalty; what persons exempted from serving as such
9. Property of, vested in such trustees; almshouse and workhouse, what persons to be received in
10. Bedding, furniture, animals and farming implements, trustees to purchase, accounts by trustees.
11. Such accounts to be examined by county commissioners.
- 12 Levy for support of
13. Meetings of trustees, overseer, appointment of
14. Compensation to overseer.
15. Bond of
- 16 Removal of.
17. List to be kept by
18. Account to be kept by.
19. May compel inmates of, to work, sale of produce of their labor
- 20 Disorderly persons, commitment of by justice, to workhouse
21. Inmate misbehaving; punishment.
22. Any two trustees may in writing appoint what poor are to be received into
- 23 Vagrants and beggars, commitment to workhouse by justice.
24. Persons selling anything to or purchasing from inmates of, penalty.
25. Sheriffs and constables to aid trustees in execution of their duties.
26. Pleadings by persons sued for things done in pursuance of this sub-title, plaintiff, if unsuccessful, to pay treble costs

Birds and Game.

- 27 What and when unlawful to kill.
28. Violating preceding section, penalty.
- 29 Non-residents, not owners of real estate in Caroline county, to obtain license to shoot or trap; penalty.
30. Persons shipping out of county; penalty.
31. Possession by any person of any, mentioned in four preceding sections, prima facie evidence of violation of said sections.
32. Persons trespassing on private property that has been posted; penalty.
33. Fines collected under provisions of six preceding sections, and amounts paid for licenses, to whom paid and how expended.
34. Constables, duty of, to arrest persons violating preceding sections.