

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 6, sec. 24.

24. Any person who shall sell any spirituous liquors, or anything whatever, to, or purchase anything which shall belong to said almshouse, from any inmate thereof, shall forfeit and pay for every offence the sum of thirty dollars, to the use of the trustees.

Ibid. sec. 25.

25. All sheriffs, constables and other officers shall aid and assist the trustees of the poor, and the officers employed by them, in the execution of their respective duties.

Ibid. sec. 26.

26. If any person shall at any time be sued or prosecuted for anything done in pursuance of this law, he may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence in his defence; and if upon trial a verdict shall be given for the defendant, or if the plaintiff be nonsuited or discontinued, the defendant shall recover treble costs.

BIRDS AND GAME.

1883, ch. 464.

27. It shall not be lawful for any person in Caroline county to shoot, kill, catch, or in any way entrap, any partridges or quail in said county between the first day of February and the first day of November in each and every year; nor any woodcock between the first day of February and the fourth day of July in each and every year; nor any wild ducks between the first day of April and the tenth day of September in each and every year; nor any sora or water-rail between the first day of January and the twentieth day of September in each and every year; nor any rabbits between the first day of January and the first day of November in each and every year; nor any muskrats between the fifteenth day of March and the first day of December in each and every year.

Ibid.

28. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for said county shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every partridge, quail,
