

acts of 1880, chapter 267, and 1884, chapter 73, and 1888, chapter 503, and shall levy on the taxable property of said county a sum of money sufficient to pay the principal of said bonds when and as they mature; and the bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall not be liable to be taxed for county or municipal purposes.

INTOXICATING LIQUORS.

1886, ch. 341.

175. Any minor under the age of twenty-one years, who shall, directly or indirectly, purchase or procure from any licensed liquor dealer, his agent or bar-tender, in the county of Allegany, any spirituous or fermented liquor or lager beer, with intent to drink the same, or any person over the age of twenty-one, who shall procure for any minor any spirituous or fermented liquor or lager beer, unless prescribed by a practising physician, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

JURORS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 1, sec. 91

176. The county commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the jurors of the county for the ensuing year, to be paid over to the clerk of the circuit court, who shall annually account with said commissioners therefor, and shall give bond, with security to be approved by said commissioners, for the faithful disbursement thereof to such jurors

Ibid. sec. 93.

177. Any surplus that may remain in the hands of the said clerk shall be a contingent fund for paying said jurors.

Ibid. sec. 93.

178. The county commissioners shall allow said clerk such compensation as they may deem reasonable for said services.