

sections, at any time in which the shooting or trapping of the same is prohibited by said preceding sections, or the possession by any express or transportation company of any partridges, quail, woodcock or rabbits at any time, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of the said sections.

1882, ch. 464.

32. Any person found trespassing upon any private property in this county, which shall have been posted or advertised, shall be liable to be arrested by any constable of the county, and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, shall be fined the sum of five dollars, and on failure to pay said fine shall be confined in the county jail for a term of not less than ten nor more than twenty days.

Ibid.

33. The fines which may be collected by any justice of the peace of said county under the provisions of the six preceding sections, and the money paid to said clerk of the circuit court for said licenses, shall be paid by said justices of the peace and the said clerk, to the county commissioners, to be by them placed to the school fund of said county.

Ibid.

34. It shall be the duty of the constables of the several election districts of the county to arrest any person violating any of said sections and take them before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with as therein directed.

BRIDGETOWN.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 6, sec. 30.

35. The citizens of the village of Bridgetown, in Caroline county, are a body corporate by the name of "The commissioners of Bridgetown," and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal.

Ibid. sec. 31.

36. The limits of Bridgetown shall commence at the forks of the road at the east end of said town, and thence running south