

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 6, sec. 38.

43. The clerk shall enter all ordinances passed by the commissioners in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and they shall at all times be open to the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up at the most public places in the town.

Ibid. sec. 39.

44. The commissioners of Bridgetown may make such ordinances and by-laws not contrary to law as they may deem expedient for the health of the town and its inhabitants, the prevention or removal of nuisances, and suppression of vice and immorality therein.

Ibid. sec. 40.

45. They may lay an equal tax on all the property within said town to such amount from time to time as may be necessary for the purposes of the corporation, and may appoint a collector to collect the same and prescribe his term of office, responsibility and compensation; and the said collector shall have the same power to distrain for said taxes as the collectors of county taxes have, and shall pay the same when collected to the said commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 41.

46. They may annually appoint a bailiff, who shall preserve the health and good order of the town, and for that purpose shall have all the powers of a constable, and who shall give bond to the county commissioners as other constables, for the faithful performance of his duty.

Ibid. sec. 42.

47. All fines and forfeitures under the ordinances of the said corporation shall be recoverable as small debts.

CIRCUIT COURT.

1866, ch. 167.

48. There shall be four regular law terms of the circuit court for Caroline county at Denton, commencing on the second Monday in January, first Monday in April, fourth Monday in June, and the first Monday in October of each year.
