

will pay such fees at their next session, shall be binding on the commissioners and entitle the prisoner to a discharge.

1886, ch. 219.

54. They are authorized and directed to appropriate annually, and pay over to the town commissioners of the several incorporated towns in the county, a sum of money in their judgment sufficient to assist in improving and repairing the road-beds of said towns.

1884, ch. 315.

55. They shall annually levy upon the assessable property of the county, a tax sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds issued under the act of 1884, chapter 315, and the principal thereof as the same shall from year to year fall due. Said bonds to be exempt from county and municipal taxation, and the coupons thereon to be receivable by the collectors in payment of county taxes.

1882, ch. 214.

56. The bonds authorized by the act of 1882, chapter 214, shall be exempt from State, county, municipal and all other taxation.

Ibid.

57. The county commissioners shall in each and every year levy upon the assessable property in Caroline county such sum of money as may be necessary to pay the interest as it may fall due, on all the said bonds by them issued and outstanding under the provisions of said act of 1882, chapter 214, and also such further and additional sum of money as may be required to pay and redeem at least ten per centum on the aggregate par value of all the bonds so issued, whether redeemed or not; which said sums thus levied shall be strictly applied to the payment of said interest and to the redemption of said bonds, and to no other debts of the county; and the original bonds last issued (the numbers and dates of which shall be endorsed on all renewals) shall be the first called for and redeemable; and after due notice for at least
