

1884, ch. 511.

61. The person so elected treasurer, before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall make and execute to the State of Maryland, a good and sufficient bond, and deliver the same to the county commissioners; said bond to be secured with sureties thereto, to be approved by them in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars, and conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of the office of county treasurer and clerk to the county commissioners, and that he will well and faithfully receive, account for and disburse all money placed in his hands or received by him in accordance with the order and direction of the county commissioners; which bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Caroline county, and a copy thereof, certified in the usual form by the said clerk, shall be admitted as evidence in all the courts of this State, at law or in equity; and the aforesaid bond shall be liable to suit by them or other persons interested therein.

Ibid.

62. The person so elected treasurer for Caroline county, in addition to his duties as treasurer, shall perform all the duties of clerk to the county commissioners, without any extra compensation whatsoever; and before entering on his duties he shall take an oath of office before the clerk of the circuit court for Caroline county, in due form of law, faithfully to perform the duties of his office as county treasurer and clerk to the county commissioners for Caroline county.

Ibid.

63. If the person so elected treasurer shall fail to deliver such bond to the county commissioners within sixty days from the date of his election, the said office shall be deemed vacant; and the county commissioners, in such case, and also in case of death, resignation or failure to qualify, of said treasurer, shall fill the vacancy by the appointment of some suitable person to fill said vacancy for the remainder of the term, who shall make, execute and deliver the bond and take the oath as hereinbefore required.

1882, ch. 214.

64. They may at any time demand of said treasurer such further bond, with such further security as in their judgment the
