

DENTON.

1884, ch 367.

72. The inhabitants of the town of Denton, in Caroline county, are a body corporate by the name of the "Commissioners of Denton," and by that name may sue and be sued, may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, and dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure

Ibid.

73. All property and funds of every kind belonging to or in possession of the town of Denton, are vested in the said corporation; and said corporation may receive in trust, and may control, for the purpose of such trusts, all money or other property which may have been or shall be bestowed upon such corporation by will, deed or in any other form of gift or conveyance, for any general corporation purpose, or in aid of the indigent and poor, or for charitable purpose, within said village; and the said corporation may lease or otherwise dispose of any property now owned or which may be hereafter acquired by said town, having first given public notice of such lease or sale in one or more of the newspapers printed in Caroline county, once a week for three successive weeks before such lease or sale.

Ibid.

74. The boundaries and limits of said town shall be as heretofore fixed, established and described as per plats and surveys thereof recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Caroline county, and also by the following metes and bounds, courses and distances, to wit: Beginning at the end of the first line of the original survey of the limits of said town, recorded in liber T. R. number I, folio 526, and from thence running south twenty-one and one-quarter degrees, west forty-two perches; thence south sixty-seven and one-half degrees, east one hundred and forty-five and one-half perches; thence north twenty-three and one-fourth degrees, east forty-two perches, to the corner of the lines extending the limits of said town, under the act of 1831, chapter 138; thence south sixty-seven and one-half degrees, east sixty perches; thence north twenty-three and one-fourth degrees,
