

voters in said town to give notice, either by written or by printed handbills, or by publication in some newspaper, of an election to be held on a certain day, at least ten days from the date of the publication or posting of such notice, for commissioners of Denton, and a majority of voters present at the hour fixed by said notice, for the commencement of said election, shall select three judges to hold said election.

1884, ch. 367.

78. If at any town election two or more persons shall receive the same number of votes for commissioners of said town, the judges of said election, after having given five days' notice of the time and place, shall proceed to hold another election to fill up said board of commissioners, and the person receiving the highest number of votes at said election shall, with those previously chosen, if any, constitute the commissioners of Denton.

Ibid.

79. If any vacancy shall occur by the death, resignation, removal or failure to act of one or more of the commissioners elected as aforesaid, the remaining commissioners, or a majority of them, shall elect a proper person to fill said vacancy.

Ibid.

80. Every commissioner, before he proceeds to act as such, shall make oath before some justice of the peace for Caroline county that he will diligently and faithfully, according to the best of his skill and judgment, perform the duties of commissioner without favor, partiality or prejudice; and a certificate of such qualification shall be returned by the said justice of the peace to the commissioners, to be filed and recorded among their proceedings.

Ibid.

81. They shall meet at such place as they may appoint, within said town, on the second Monday of every month ensuing their election, and as much oftener, by adjournment, as they shall deem necessary.

Ibid.

82. They shall elect a president of the board and appoint a clerk, a bailiff, a treasurer, and one or more assessors of taxes.
