

1884, ch. 367.

86. The treasurer shall be appointed from among the citizens of said town qualified to vote for commissioners; and before entering upon the duties of his office he shall give bond to the State of Maryland, with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the said commissioners, in such penalty as the said commissioners shall prescribe, conditioned that he shall well and faithfully account for all monies paid over to him by the bailiff of said corporation, or that may be received by him from any other person for the use of said corporation, and shall well and truly pay over to his successor in office, or to the order of said commissioners, signed by their clerk and countersigned by their president, all said monies, and shall perform all other duties of his office according to law and the ordinances of said commissioners; he shall keep full and correct accounts of all monies received by him, with the sources from which the same were received and the dates of such receipts and of the disbursements made by him, with the dates of such disbursements, and the persons to whom and on what account the same were made.

Ibid.

87. The assessor or assessors shall be appointed from among the citizens of said town entitled to vote for commissioners of said town; and before he or they shall proceed to act as assessor or assessors he or they shall take an oath before a justice of the peace for Caroline county that he or they will assess and value the assessable property of every sort within said town at its full cash value, without favor, partiality or prejudice, to the best of his or their skill and judgment; he or they shall enter and record in a book to be provided for that purpose an accurate and fair account of all property, stocks and private securities of every sort within said town liable to assessment, and the valuation thereof, together with a list of the owners thereof, which shall be returned by him or them to the said commissioners on or before the thirtieth day of June in each and every year, and which any person interested may inspect without charge; and if any one shall feel aggrieved at the valuation and assessment of his property by said assessor or assessors, he may appeal from such valuation to the said commissioners at any time within two weeks from the return of said assessment; and upon good cause being shown, the said commis-
