

1884, ch. 367.

102. They may, in their discretion, exempt and release from assessment or taxation any or all machinery, plant and property used in manufacturing, for a period not exceeding five years, by agreement or otherwise.

Ibid.

103. The interests and rights of the said corporation and the members of Temple lodge, No. 128, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, now held in the market house and masonic hall, shall remain in them as heretofore, or be disposed of and released by them as has been or may hereafter be provided by law.

Ibid.

104. The county commissioners are authorized and directed to pay to the commissioners of Denton, annually, not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, as a consideration for their attention to the public property and grounds, and the improvement of the streets through said town used as public highways, and levy for the same like other county charges.

DOGS.

1876, ch. 97.

105. Caroline, Carroll, Cecil, Calvert, Dorchester, Kent, Montgomery, Prince George's, Queen Anne's, St. Mary's, Somerset, Washington, Worcester and Allegany counties, and Baltimore city, and all cities, towns or burroughs in which dogs are taxed by municipal ordinance, are exempted from the operation of sections 157-162 of article 81 of the code of public general laws, title "Revenue and Taxes," relating to the taxation of dogs in this State.

DOVER BRIDGE.

1865, ch. 128.

106. The inhabitants of Caroline county shall have the privilege of passing over Dover bridge, being the bridge across Choptank river at Dover ferry, with their vehicles, carriages, wagons, carts, horses, mules, oxen, cattle, sheep, hogs, and all other property, free from toll or exaction of any kind.