

1870, ch. 144.

148. All property and funds of every kind belonging to or in possession of the village of Greensborough are vested in the said corporation, and the said corporation may receive in trust, and may control for the purpose of such trusts, all money or other property which may have been or shall be bestowed upon such corporation by will, deed or any other form of gift or conveyance in trust for any general corporation purpose, or in aid of the indigent and poor, or for charitable purposes within said village; and the said corporation may lease or otherwise dispose of any property now owned or which may be hereafter acquired by said village, having first given public notice of such lease or sale in one or more of the newspapers printed in Caroline county once a week for three successive weeks before such lease or sale.

Ibid.

149. The bounds of Greensborough shall be as they have been or may hereafter be fixed by the commissioners of said village, not containing more than four hundred acres of land.

Ibid.

150. The citizens of Greensborough, who have resided in said village for six months previous to the day of election, and who are qualified to vote for delegates to the general assembly, shall elect by ballot, on the fourth Monday of April, annually, at such place as the commissioners of said village shall appoint, five persons, residents and qualified voters of said village, commissioners of Greensborough.

Ibid.

151. The commissioners, or a majority of them, shall be judges of such election, and the proceedings shall be recorded under their direction; and every commissioner, before he opens an election, shall make oath before a justice of the peace that he will faithfully and impartially permit every person to vote at such election who shall be qualified to vote for commissioners of said village, and that he will not suffer any person to vote at such election who shall not be legally qualified to vote.
