

1884, ch. 510.

183. Constables in the said counties shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for the particular services rendered by them under the preceding section; and the said justices shall be entitled to charge for their respective services in said criminal cases the following fees: For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents; for summoning all the witnesses on both sides in any case, fifty cents; for each trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances in each case reported to the circuit court, twenty-five cents each; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents.

Ibid.

184. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of section 182, shall be accounted for and wholly paid, without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county, and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

MANUFACTURERS AND MINERS.

1880, ch. 273.

185. Every corporation engaged in mining or manufacturing, or operating a railroad, in Allegany county, and employing ten or more hands, shall pay its employees the full amount of their wages in legal tender money of the United States; and any contract by or on behalf of any such corporation for the payment of the whole or of any part of such wages in any other manner than herein provided, shall be and is hereby declared illegal, null and void; and every such employee shall be entitled to recover from any such corporation employing him, the whole or so much of the wages earned by him as shall not have been actually paid to him in legal tender money of the United States, without
