

1870, ch. 144.

165. They shall, as soon after the expiration of the time for hearing appeals as practicable, proceed to ascertain the amount necessary to be levied for the use of the said corporation, and the rate of taxation, and shall cause to be made and delivered to the bailiff a book containing an alphabetical list of the taxpayers in said village, together with the aggregate assessment of each, and the rate of taxation and amount of taxes due and owing from each taxpayer under said levy and assessment.

Ibid.

166. Immediately upon the receipt by him of the book specified in the preceding section, the bailiff shall proceed to collect all taxes levied by the said commissioners, and shall pay over the same, whenever required so to do by the said commissioners, to the treasurer of said corporation; and if any person shall neglect or refuse to pay said taxes, or shall neglect or refuse to pay any fines or forfeitures levied or imposed by the said commissioners, the bailiff shall proceed to collect said taxes, fines or forfeitures by distress or execution, as county taxes are collected; and in order to enforce the payment of said taxes, fines or forfeitures, the duties and powers imposed and conferred on the collectors of county taxes by article 81 of the code of public general laws, title "Revenue and Taxes," are hereby imposed and conferred on said bailiff in as full and ample manner as if the several provisions of the said code of public general laws, relating to the collection of county taxes, were herein expressly enacted.

Ibid.

167. The said commissioners may pass such by-laws and ordinances as they shall deem necessary for the good government of said village and the inhabitants thereof; for the removal of nuisances; to prevent swine and geese from going at large; and for the opening, extension, repairing, improvement and closing up of streets, lanes and alleys of said village; and all damages done, suffered or incurred by the opening, closing, extension or improving of said streets, lanes or alleys, shall be determined and assessed by three disinterested persons, residents of said village, to be appointed by said commissioners, who shall, within twenty days
