

in a westerly direction, until it strikes the public road leading from Hillsborough to Tuckahoe neck road; thence along said road in a southerly direction until it strikes the division line between Asbury Prouse and James W. Holt; thence along said line, a due west course, until it strikes Tuckahoe creek; thence along the meanderings of said creek, east side, until it intersects with starting point at said Tuckahoe creek bridge aforementioned; all property within said limits shall be subject to such taxes and charges as may be deemed necessary by said commissioners, or a majority of them, to support and maintain the expenses which may be at any time incurred in the improvement of said town; provided, said tax shall not exceed the sum of fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars for any one year; and the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power to appoint an assessor, who shall enter upon the duties as soon as practicable after having taken an oath that he will value the property of said town correctly and impartially, and make a proper and timely return of such valuation to the board of commissioners.

178. If any of the owners of property within said town shall conceive themselves aggrieved by the assessment so made by said assessor, they may appeal to the board of commissioners, for a final adjustment of the same.

Ibid.

179. The said commissioners are empowered to pass all by-laws and ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to all the powers vested in this corporation, to impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the breach of their by-laws and ordinances; provided, that no ordinance of the said commissioners shall impose a fine, penalty or forfeiture, for any one offence, of more than ten dollars.

Ibid.

180. If any person shall refuse or neglect to pay the taxes, fines and forfeitures lawfully charged against him, it shall and may be lawful for said commissioners to collect the same, in the same manner and with the same cost that taxes are collected in said county.
