

summoning all the witnesses on both sides in any case, fifty cents; for each trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances in each case reported to the circuit court, twenty-five cents each; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents.

1884, ch 510.

191. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of section 189 shall be accounted for and wholly paid, without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county; and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

1864, ch. 317.

192. When any justice of the peace shall resign or be removed from office, he shall deliver his docket, together with all notes, bonds, accounts and papers in his possession appertaining to judgments or suits entered thereon, to his successor in office, within thirty days after such resignation or removal; if any justice dies, the delivery aforesaid shall be made by his administrator or other person in whose hands the said docket and papers may be or come, within thirty days after receiving them.

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

1876, ch. 188

193. It shall not be lawful for any person or body corporate to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in any district of Caroline county.

Ibid.

194. If any person or body corporate shall be guilty of a violation of the preceding section, he or they shall, on conviction