

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 1, sec. 103.

193. Any sheriff or coroner who may have an execution or attachment against the property of any such individual, association or corporation, shall exempt from execution and levy a sufficiency of property to pay any indebtedness of such individual, association or corporation, to employees or furnishers of raw materials; and it shall be his duty diligently to inquire whether the said individual, association or corporation be indebted as aforesaid; and if the employees or furnishers of raw materials shall in any way suffer, be prejudiced or injured by refusal to comply with, or negligence in executing the requirements hereof, the sheriff or coroner, together with his sureties, shall be bound and held liable for whatever of injury or damage shall be done in the premises in consequence of such refusal or negligence.

1864, ch. 427.

194. The period of employment of workingmen employed in and about the mines of Allegany and Garrett counties shall be ten hours per day, said hours to be computed from the time of beginning said day's labor; provided, that the time of beginning said day's labor shall be seven o'clock, A. M.; but nothing herein contained shall in any way preclude any workingman in and about said mines from working a greater number of hours should he so desire, and enter into contract with the owner or owners or managers of any of said mines—such additional hours to be computed as over time, and to be paid for.

1886, ch. 170.

195. Any person, body corporate, agent, manager or employer, who shall violate any of the provisions of the foregoing section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than fifty dollars.

MINE INSPECTOR.

1878, ch. 157.

196. The governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint one mine inspector for the counties of Allegany and Garrett, who shall hold his office for two years from the date of his appointment.
