

1874, ch. 79.

39. If the owners of said dams shall fail to comply with the provisions of the preceding section they shall be liable, upon conviction thereof by summary process before any justice of the peace of this State, in the county in which said dam or dams is or are situated, to a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, five dollars to the informer and the balance to the county commissioners of such county, for school purposes.

HAMPSTEAD.

1888, ch. 295.

40. The inhabitants of the town of Hampstead, Carroll county, are made a body corporate by the name and style of "The Mayor and Council of Hampstead," and by that name shall have perpetual succession; may sue and be sued; may purchase, hold, sell and dispose of real, personal and mixed property for the use and benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which may be broken or altered at pleasure.

Ibid.

41. The limits of said town shall be as follows: beginning at the corner on the northwest side of the Baltimore and Hanover turnpike, where the Baltimore and Harrisburg railroad crosses said turnpike at the north end of the village of Hampstead, and running with said railroad southward to a point south of the Houcksville road opposite the lane running eastward from said turnpike on the line of the properties of Charles Richards and Howard Kemp, and thence eastward to the centre of the Hanover turnpike, along said lane three hundred feet from the centre of said turnpike; thence northward parallel with said Baltimore and Hanover turnpike to said Baltimore and Harrisburg railroad; thence southwestward along said railroad to the place of beginning.

Ibid.

42. The mayor and council of Hampstead, shall be seven in number, and shall be elected on the first Monday in May annually, accounting from the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight. All male inhabitants of said town, citizens of the United States,