

street, running southeast with said branch to the mouth of the race; thence with the northeast side of the mill-dam to Chew's bridge, leaving the dam and bridge outside the corporation; then northeast on the west side of the road to the division line between Jesse Lambert and E. W. Engler, leaving the road outside of said corporation; then along the said line to a point directly opposite the line between A. H. Baker and Josiah Hibberd, on the east side of Calvert college; then from this point northerly, through the land of A. H. Baker to the division line between said Baker and Hibberd, to the northeast corner of the land of said Baker, to a ten-pin alley; then westwardly with the lines between said Hibberd, Baker, Frownfelter and others, to the lands of D. H. Maynard; then with a straight line north and parallel with said Maynard's garden fence, then to the garden fence and with it to said Maynard's outer gate; then with a straight line to the sycamore tree, the place of beginning.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 7, sec. 125.

99. The burgess and commissioners may, with the written consent of the owners thereof, include any other adjoining property within the limits of the town, but they shall not exclude any property from the limits of the town, now or hereafter included therein.

Ibid. sec. 126.

100. The owners of taxable property in New Windsor, living in Carroll county, and all other persons who have resided in said town six months, and are qualified to vote for delegates to the general assembly, shall, on the first Monday in May, annually, elect by ballot, a burgess and not less than three nor more than five commissioners, who shall be lot holders in said town, and shall have resided therein twelve months, and are qualified to vote at said election.

Ibid. sec. 127.

101. All elections shall be conducted as the corporation by their by-laws may direct.

Ibid. sec. 128.

102. The persons who shall receive the highest number of votes for the offices of burgess and commissioners, respectively, shall be declared duly elected; and if at any election for burgess