

1872, ch. 158.

117. The burgess and commissioners of said town shall have power to widen, open and keep open, streets, lanes and alleys, upon paying damages for any private property that may be taken for the purpose; said damages to be assessed by three disinterested persons, citizens of the town, to be appointed by said burgess and commissioners; and the said burgess and commissioners are further authorized to provide for the payment of said damages, by assessing and levying, either generally upon the whole assessable property of the town, or specially on the property of persons benefited, for the whole or any part of the amount of said damages and costs.

Ibid.

118. It shall not be lawful for any person, whether licensed to sell spirituous liquors or not, to sell, dispose of, barter or give, within the corporate limits of the town of New Windsor, or within one mile thereof, any spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind, or in any quantity whatever, to any youth or minor, under the age of twenty-one years, without the written order from the parent or guardian of such minor; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to indictment in the circuit court for Carroll county, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, for each offence, and to be confined in the jail of said county until said fines are paid.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 7, sec. 142.

119. The burgess shall be treasurer of the corporation, and shall give bond to the corporation, with security approved by the commissioners, in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer, and he shall receive and pay away monies according to the ordinances of the commissioners, or a majority of them.

1867, ch. 420.

120. The burgess and commissioners may appoint a bailiff who shall preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for that purpose he shall have all the powers of a constable of the counties.
