each Monday of its said regular terms, and on the Monday and Tuesday of every week in the year other than the weeks of the said regular terms.

1878, ch 206.

127. The said court shall sit for the transaction of business from nine o'clock A. M. to three o'clock P. M. of each day, and in no case shall they sit oftener than two days in any one week, except during the regular jury terms of the circuit court for Carroll county, when, if necessary for the despatch of business, they may sit by adjournment every day during the time said circuit court is in actual session, unless it exceeds three weeks; and except, also, when it shall appear to said orphans' court to be necessary for the purpose of examining witnesses or hearing arguments in a cause depending before said orphans' court, on which occasion they may adjourn from day to day in any week, as long as it may be necessary in the trial of such cause.

REVENUE AND TAXES.

1874, ch 512. 1888, ch 187.

128. All persons and incorporated institutions that shall pay their county taxes on or before the first day of September of the year for which they were levied, shall be entitled to a deduction of two per centum on the amount of said taxes; and at the time of receiving said taxes the collector shall make the deduction aforesaid, and note the same upon the receipt given to the persons or incorporated institutions so paying.

1874, ch. 512.

129. All State and county taxes shall be liens on the real estate of the party indebted, from the date of their levy, and shall be considered in arrears on the first day of January next succeeding the date of their levy, and shall bear interest from that date at the rate of six per centum per annum.

Ibid.

130. In all cases where either State or county taxes or both shall be in arrear and unpaid, and the collector shall find it necessary to enforce the collection thereof, he shall first leave with the party by whom the taxes are to be paid, or at the usual place of
